Section 4, If three-fifths of the qualified voters voting at said election, shall vote in favor of the issuance and sale of such bonds, the Mayor and Clerk are hereby authorized and directed to have printed, engraved or lithographed negotiable bonds of the Town of Kirkland in the sum of Eighteen thousand ($18,000) Dollars and to execute the same in the name of, and under the corporate seal of said town, which bonds shall bear interest as of the day of their issuance, be payable by their terms twenty (20) years after said date, and shall bear a rate of interest not exceeding Six (6%) per cent per annum, payable semi-annually, for which interest coupons shall be attached to and be a part of said bonds, and the said bonds and coupons shall be payable at a place therein expressed.

Section 5. The Clerk shall advertise said bonds for sale in the manner provided by law, and shall report the bids for the same to the Town Council, which shall determine which is the highest and best bidder, and upon the determination thereof by the Town Council, and upon the payment of the price thereof, said bonds shall be delivered to the successful bidder; provided that each bidder shall be required to deposit with the ^{Town Clerk} ~~City Comptroller~~ with his bid, a check certified by some responsible bank doing business in the Town of Kirkland in the sum of One Thousand ($1000.00) Dollars, which check shall be returned to the bidder in case his bid is not accepted, and the check so deposited by the successful bidder shall be applied upon the sum bid by him for said bonds, or in case he shall not comply with his bid, said check shall be forfeited absolutely to the Town of Kirkland; provided, however, that if the State Treasurer of the State of Washington or the Commissioner of Public Lands of said State shall bid for said bonds, no deposit shall be required with said bid.

Section 6. The money derived from the sale of said bonds shall be applied to the purchase of land for parks, parkways and play grounds and the improvement thereof

Section 7. There shall be levied each year by the Town Council of said town, in its annual tax levy, a tax upon all the property in said town subject to taxation sufficient to pay the interest upon said bonds as the same may accrue, and the amount of such tax, as collected, shall be by the Town Treasurer credited to a special fund for the payment of the interest upon said bonds, and no part of such fund shall be diverted to any other purpose than the payment of such interest, and the faith and credit of such town are hereby pledged for the annual levy and collection of such tax and the regular payment of such interest.

Section 8. At least Ten (10) years prior to the maturity of said bonds and thereafter in each year until their maturity, there shall be levied by the Town Council of said city, in its annual tax levy, a tax upon all the property in said city subject to taxation sufficient to accumulate during said period of years a fund equal to the principal sum of all of said bonds remaining unpaid and not owned by said town, and the amount of such tax, as collected, shall be by the Treasurer of said town credited to a special fund for the payment of the principal of such bonds and no part of such funds shall be diverted to any other purpose than the payment of such principal, and the faith, property and credit of said town are hereby pledged for the levy and collection of such tax and the payment of the principal of such bonds at the maturity thereof, provided, however that the whole or any part of the moneys in said special fund may be invested at any time or times, not less than six months prior to the maturity of the said bonds, in case the town Council shall so direct, in any bonds issued in pursuance of this ordinance, to the extent only of the face amount of the principal of such bonds, or in any interest bearing bonds of the United States of America, or of the State of Washington, or in any other securities in which its investment may be authorized by a general law of this State, in which case all interest or premiums which may be realized on any investment as well as the principal thereof, shall be credited to such sinking fund.

Section 9. This ordinance shall take effect after its passage and publication as provided by law.

Passed the Town Council the 27 day of Dec, 1919, and signed by me in open session in authentication of its passage this 27 day of Dec, 1919.
