I. SUMMARY:

A. Description of the Proposed Action.

Gerald Schlatter of Forbes Creek Development Corporation has submitted an application for an Amendment to the approved Final Planned Unit Development of Forbes Creek - Phase I. The applicant proposes to include a 20 foot wide and 171.86 foot long portion of Phase II as part of the Phase I development and to subdivide Phase I into 32 lots and a Tract C for common open space and a private road. The property is located at 10434 116th Avenue N.E. in an area to be rezoned from RS-35000 to RS-8500. The 5.88 acre Forbes Creek Phase I received final approval on October 1, 1979. Phase II received preliminary approval on March 15, 1978.

The major issues are the private ownership of the 32 lots and common ownership of Tract C.

B. Recommendations.

Based on the major issues, facts, conclusions, and exhibits "A" through "F" contained herein, we hereby recommend approval of this application subject to the following conditions:

1. This application is subject to the various requirements contained in the Land Use Policies Plan and the Kirkland Zoning Ordinance. It is the responsibility of the applicant to assure compliance with the various provisions contained in these provisions.
2. On the final site plan, the applicant must state that Tract C shall be owned and maintained by the common ownership of "Forbes Creek" Planned Unit Development.

II. MAJOR ISSUES, FACTS AND CONCLUSIONS

A. Private Ownership of the 32 Lots

1. Statements of Fact.

- a. The Forbes Creek PUD Phase I was approved on October 1, 1979, for 32 dwelling units. 23 of the units are attached and 9 of the units are detached. Phase II received preliminary approval on March 15, 1978, (see Exhibits "E" and "F").

- b. The applicant proposes to include a 20 foot wide by 171.86 foot long portion of Phase II as part of the Phase I development and to subdivide Phase I into 32 individual lots encompassing the sides of the approved dwelling unit (see Exhibits "D" and "F").
- c. The applicant proposes the subdivision because he believes that townhouses on privately owned lots are more marketable at this time.
- d. The applicant proposes no changes to the buildings, landscaping, ingress and egress, setbacks, open space, parking or any other improvement on the approved site plan (see Exhibits "D" and "F").
- e. The boundaries of Phase II have been established for the Planned Unit Development building phase process, but are not legally recorded lines. Once the Planned Unit Development is completed and recorded, the phasing boundaries are deleted.

2. Conclusions.

The Amendment to the Final Planned Unit Development of Forbes Creek Phase I only creates 32 privately owned lots and does not alter the physical improvements on the site. Common open space and a private road are still provided within Tract C. The small portion of Phase II can be included as part of the Phase I development for subdivision purposes.

B. Common Ownership of Tract C.

1. Statements of Fact.

- a. The Forbes Creek Planned Unit Development received preliminary approval on March 15, 1978, and final approval for Phase I on October 1, 1979. The approval site plans indicate a private road and open space under common ownership of the Planned Unit Development (see Exhibits "E" and "F").

12/16/80
2698A/0039Abk

- b. The roadway in Phase I is part of the private loop road serving the Planned Unit Development. The common open space is part of the total lot density computation for the PUD (see Exhibits "E" and "F").
- c. The applicant proposes to subdivide Forbes Creek Phase I into 32 lots and Tract C. Tract C contains the common open space and private road (see Exhibit "D").

2. Conclusions.

On the final site plan, the applicant must state that Tract C shall be owned and maintained by the common ownership of the Forbes Creek Planned Unit Development.

III. BACKGROUND

A. History of Site.

March 15, 1975	Preliminary Planned Unit Development for 115 units and Preliminary Subdivision of "Forbes Creek" into 8 lots are approved.
