THE CITY OF Kirkland QUALIFIES FOR AN ESTIMATED $317,563 IN 1999 KING COUNTY CONSORTIUM COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT BLOCK GRANT (CDBG) FUNDS, WHICH WILL BE AVAILABLE JANUARY 1, 1999.

Please check one:

Our City does not elect to receive and administer the above estimated pass-through. We choose instead to apply for CDBG funding on-a project by project basis through the County and Small Cities process.

Our City elects to receive and administer the above estimated pass-through with the conditions outlined in the 1997 King County Community Development Block Grant Consortium Guide. Among other responsibilities, we recognize that in accepting a pass-through we are accepting the responsibility of adopting Local Strategies and allocating the pass-through funds in accordance with the Consortium's schedule for submission to the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development.

If applicable: Enclosed are revised Local Strategies required in the CDBG Interlocal Cooperation Agreement that will guide the allocation of these funds. Our City has held at least one public hearing before adopting these revised strategies.

Cities which accept the pass-through should check the following if applicable:

Our City would like to allocate a portion of our funds for public (human) service activities.

Our City would like to allocate a portion of our funds for planning and administration activities.

Our City is eligible to request the use of additional planning and administration ceiling. We would like to request additional funds for the following:

Our City would like to contribute a portion of our capital funds to the King County Housing Repair Program so that our residents may participate. We understand that 15% of the total amount allocated will be used for program delivery costs.

The following lists our distribution of CDBG funds for 1999: (List amounts below).

Public Services	Planning and Administration	Additional P&A Requested	Housing Repair	Capital Projects	Total Funds Available
$ 46,522	$ 41,258	$	$ 45,000	$184,783	$ 317,563
